Data Protection at the Young Vic

We are committed to making sure you understand the control you have over the information you provide to the Young Vic.

To complete your membership we will add the information you share with us to our database. This enables us to manage your membership including contacting you and administering your benefits. You can update your communication preferences online or by giving us a call at any time.

We may also need to share your payment information with third party providers so we can process your payment or direct debit. For direct debits this includes a verification check with our third party processor Bottomline to ensure you own your bank account. Please note this check does access data available from credit reference agencies. We also use a third party to process direct debits on our behalf, called Rapidata.
