THE YOUNG VIC THEATRE

JOB TITLE: ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Job Reference: BARKA

Closing Date: Tuesday 11 July 2017

We are looking for an Artistic Director to succeed David Lan who has announced his departure after 17 outstanding years in the role.

The Young Vic is one of London's most celebrated theatres. At our home on The Cut in Waterloo, we produce new plays, classics, forgotten works, musicals, short films and more. We attract large and complex audiences, we work with theatre artists and companies from all over the world, we have deep roots in our neighbourhoods and we take shows to the West End and New York. Recent shows include The Scottsboro Boys, A View from the Bridge, Happy Days, Measure for Measure, A Streetcar Named Desire and Yerma.

Following David's announcement that he will leave at the end of our next season, we are looking for a new Artistic Director to lead the Young Vic into its future.

This is a role of national and international significance at the head of one of the UK's most influential cultural institutions. Accountable to the Board and working closely alongside the Executive Director, the new Artistic Director will lead the company by overseeing, developing and implementing artistic policy at the highest level as well as by nurturing the next generation of theatre artists.

Saxton Bampfylde Ltd are advisors to the Young Vic on this appointment. Candidates should apply for this role through their website at www.saxbam.com/jobs using code BARKA. The closing date for applications is noon on Tuesday 11 July 2017.
